Tekcapital Announces a Strategic Alliance with Health Connexions™

Tekcapital plc (AIM: TEK), an international provider of technology and intellectual property services, is pleased to announce it has entered into a strategic alliance with Health Connexions™, to market InventionEvaluator more widely to pharmaceutical, medical device, diagnostic and healthcare companies.

InventionEvaluator, a division of Tekcapital, provides in-depth analytical reports that assess the commercial potential of new technologies and intellectual property, thereby enabling clients to make more informed decisions regarding investments in new technologies. As part of the Alliance, Health Connexions™ will make the InventionEvaluator's reports available to its clients and network members worldwide.

Through the acquisition of InventionEvaluator (www.inventionevaluator.com), announced on the 23rd of July, 2014, Tekcapital has added an important additional service for clients, who are able to use this product to further determine and extract value from intellectual property.

Health Connexions™ is a Boston-based professional services firm with a global reach that provides Strategic Consulting, Market Research, Communications, Education & Training, and Care & Cost Management to healthcare, pharmaceutical, diagnostic and medical device companies (www.healthconnexions.com).

Commenting on the announcement, Dr. Clifford M. Gross, Executive Chairman of Tekcapital plc said:

“The acquisition of InventionEvaluator has expanded our service offering and client base. To further expand its market penetration into life science and health care companies, we are very excited to have entered into a strategic alliance with Health Connexions™. We believe their large network of leading companies focused on improving medical outcomes is an excellent fit with InventionEvaluator’s reports, which provide guidance on the marketability of newly developed technologies.”

Commenting on the announcement, Dawn Van Dam, President & CEO of Health Connexions™ said:

“We are very enthusiastic to be able to provide the InventionEvaluator service to our clients worldwide. Health Connexions™ has developed an extensive network and unique collaborative model in consulting & market research, technology evaluations and marketing communications services to help clients in the life sciences and health care sectors transform science into commercial success. We believe that InventionEvaluator’s comprehensive and cost-effective reports, which assess the marketability of new technologies, should prove valuable to many of our clients.”
