Lucyd Pte Ltd. Launches eShop

Tekcapital plc (AIM: TEK), the UK intellectual property (IP) investment group focused on creating marketplace value from university technology, is pleased to announce that portfolio company Lucyd has launched an online store to provide cutting-edge spectacles and smartglasses.

The Lucyd eShop will feature the latest technologies and trends in eyewear, including Lucyd-developed smartglasses, designer frames, and other innovations in spectacles. The eShop provides a combination of unique benefits over many eyewear shops, including:

- Offering advanced prescription eyewear such as Bluetooth enabled glasses to connect with your mobile phone
- High tech and fashion forward frames
- Try before you buy with a sophisticated virtual try-on app
- The ability to pose eye health questions to a licensed optometrist for free and,
- A loyalty program based on purchases, referrals and Lucyd's unique LCD token

Initially the eShop will offer fashion forward, prescription eyewear and Bluetooth enabled prescription glasses as it continues to develop smartglasses, prototypes of which are expected to be available in early 2019.

Harrison Gross, Media Lead at Lucyd said,

"We are very excited to announce the launch of our eShop. The goal of Lucyd is to upgrade your eyewear, with the style and technology that fits you perfectly. We believe our eShop will transform eyeglass shopping into a fun, new experience."

About Lucyd
