Science Advisor Appointment

Tekcapital plc, (AIM: TEK) the UK intellectual property investment group focused on creating marketplace value from university technology, announces that Juan A. Hurtado has joined its science advisory board as a technology and innovation advisor.

USAF Lt Col (Ret) Hurtado has an extensive track record in leading technology and driving innovation. He previously served as the Science and Technology Advisor and Deputy Director, Technology, Innovation and Solutions for the U.S. Southern Command, Department of Defense, and with the U.S. Air Force where he managed research and discoveries for a number of significant technology centers.

Clifford M. Gross Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer of Tekcapital plc commented:

"We are very pleased to announce the appointment of Juan A. Hurtado as a technology and innovation adviser and we are enthusiastic to have him work on our business development efforts in the US and Latin America. His experience with winning and managing complex technology programs should enhance Tekcapital's corporate and governmental outreach efforts. "
